TAPS

Day is done, Gone the sun,
From the lake, From the hill,
From the sky.
All is well, Safely rest,
God is nigh.

Thanks and praise, For our days,
Neath the sun, Neath the stars,
Neath the sky,
As we go, This we know,
God is nigh.

Fades the light; And afar
Goeth day, And the stars
Shineth bright,
Fare thee well; Day has gone,
Night is on.

Go to sleep, Peaceful sleep,
May the Soldier or Sailor,
God keep.
On the land or the deep,
Safe in sleep.

Love, good night, Must thou go,
When the day, And the night
Need thee so?
All is well. Speedeth all
To their rest.

James Paul Grabow was born on February 9, 1931, in Milbank, SD, to Paul and Marie (Buttke) Grabow. James served in the United States Navy during the Korean Conflict. He was stationed on the USS New Jersey (BB-62) and earned several service medals. He was honorably discharged in 1954.

Jimmy was a gifted machinist and worked in California at Douglas Aircraft for many years along with many other machinery companies. He later returned to South Dakota and worked at Dakota Machine Works in Corona. James enjoyed attending small farm auctions. He loved buying and selling anything he could. He would call up a couple of his friends and take them along to auctions or sales that were a distance from Milbank.

James is survived by his siblings: Janet White of Buntstown, FL, Elton Grabow, Jerry Grabow, and Keith (Diane) Grabow all of Milbank, SD; numerous nieces and nephews; and many other family members.

Preceding him in death are his parents; siblings: Marlo Grabow, Harold Grabow, and Gloria (Dale) Schell; and brother-in-law, Ralph White.

James Grabow died May 30, 2018, at the Sioux Falls VA Hospital at the age of 87.

Blessed be his memory.
