

You Never Said Goodbye

*You never said I'm,
leaving,
You never said
goodbye.
You were gone
before I knew it,
And only God knew
why.*

A million times I needed you,

*A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.*

*In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.*

*It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*

ARRANGEMENTS BY

Mundwiler Funeral Home - Milbank, South Dakota

Ronald Eugene Bohn was born on October 28, 1948, in Milbank, SD. He was the son of Louis Herman and Laura Mae (Hall) Bohn. Ron attended rural school in Melrose Township through the eighth grade. He was united in marriage with Brenda Smith on April 8, 1978. They were blessed with a daughter, Valerie. Ron worked in the quarry at Dakota Granite Company before beginning his farm career with the Hicks Family Farm. Ron farmed for 44 years. He also had a lawn care and snow moving business, taking care of many customers, including Valley Queen Cheese Factory. He was united in marriage with Gladys Edith Powell on May 27, 2004, in Watertown, SD.

Ron was a faithful member of Emanuel Lutheran Church. He enjoyed his “toys” – especially his Razor AVT. He loved coffee time at the Millstone Restaurant, and enjoyed all the conversations. He was a man of many words. You never had to wonder what Ron was thinking, because he told you! Most importantly, Ron loved his family and enjoyed every minute spent with them.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Gladys of Milbank, SD; daughter and son-in-law: Val and Lonnie Nelson of Summit, SD; three grandchildren: Landen, Kylie, and Karter Nelson; three brothers: Donald Bohn (Wanda Giossi) of Milbank, SD; Larry (Barb) Bohn of Twin Brooks, SD; and Robert Bohn of Brookings, SD. Ron was preceded in death by his parents.

Treasured Seasons

*To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose
under heaven:*

A time to be born and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance;

*A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.*

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.
