

IRISH BLESSING

*May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rain fall soft upon your fields.
And, until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
Amen.*

Janice Mary (McCulloch) Schultz was born on December 6, 1936, in Milbank, SD, to Lester and Lucille (Kelly) McCulloch. She was one of six children. Janice attended St. Lawrence Catholic School and graduated from Milbank High School in 1955.

In 1956, she married Neil Storm, and together they had five children: Larry, Tim, Cindy, Scott and Sheila. They later divorced and in 1983, Janice moved to Sioux Falls and remained there until 2012 when she moved back to Milbank to be closer to family.

Janice's working career started at Trevett's Café. She later worked as a radio dispatcher for the Sheriff's Office and at Milbank Mutual Insurance Company. In Sioux Falls, she held a variety of positions that were all very fulfilling, including: a women's abuse shelter, the Children's Inn, as a job coach for the mentally ill through Southeast Behavioral Health Center, as a receptionist at YWCA, and also at the Inn on Westport (an assisted living center) at the time of her retirement. After retiring, she worked part-time as a receptionist at Ronald McDonald House and at Active Generations Senior Center in Sioux Falls. Janice enjoyed working with the public and helping others, which all these jobs allowed her to do.

In her free time, Janice enjoyed dancing, traveling, doing crafts, and home decoration. She also loved antique and flea markets, doing Sudoku, and listening to gospel music. During the spring and summer, she loved walking and enjoying flowers. Janice was an active member of the Red Hat Society in both Sioux Falls and Milbank.

Janice is survived by her children: Larry (Jan) Storm of Milbank, SD; Cindy Gerdes of Milbank, SD; and Sheila (Bill) Parker of Bullhead City, AZ; nine grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; siblings: Gladys Folk of Milbank, SD; Melvin McCulloch of Milbank, SD; Lyle (Marianne) McCulloch of Eagan, MN; and Joe McCulloch of Brooklyn Center, MN; and sister-in-law, Mary McCulloch of Sioux Falls, SD.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sons: Tim Storm and Scott Storm; one great-grandson, Isaiah Hooth; brother, John McCulloch; sisters-in-law: Kathy McCulloch and Martina McCulloch; brother-in-law, Ed Folk; and nephews: Warren Folk, Steve Folk, David McCulloch, and Paul McCulloch.
