

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around his garden
And found an empty space;
He then looked down upon this earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arm around you
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew you might never
Get well upon this earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you never went alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you Home.

James “Jim” Victor Klein was born on February 11, 1937, to Joseph and Ethel (Haanen) Klein. Jim grew up in Beardsley and graduated from Beardsley High School in 1955. He married Mary Krekelberg on September 19, 1964, at St. Joseph’s Catholic Church in Perham, MN. Jim and Mary lived in Beardsley from 1964-1976, where he was employed at the Beardsley Elevator. They have lived in Clinton since 1976. Jim was the manager of the Clinton Farmers Elevator and later the assistant manager of Harvest States Elevator in Morris. From high school until he retired in 2002, Jim spent 49 years working in the grain elevator business. After he retired, he enjoyed helping out at Moberg Farms.

Jim attended St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Beardsley where he was baptized and confirmed. He was currently a member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Graceville. In his younger days, he was the fire chief of Beardsley and served in the National Guard. He really enjoyed the Clinton Card Club and being “Mayor” of the Trail’s End Lakefront Community. Jim was a good friend to many because of his caring and unselfish nature. He loved fishing, hunting, and travelling with Mary. He spent many hours pulling tubers and skiers on Big Stone Lake. Jim was so supportive of his girls that he did not miss a single sporting event they were involved in, from 1983-1989. Jim treasured his grandchildren and cherished the times they spent together.

Jim is survived by his wife, Mary Klein of Clinton, MN; daughters: Kathy Klein of Clinton, MN; Kristi (Bruce) Moberg of Clinton, MN; and Kim (John) Rollie of Eagan, MN; grandchildren: David Moberg, Kayla Moberg, Joseph Rollie, Nathan Moberg, Jessica Moberg, and Kelly Rollie; numerous brothers-in-law; sisters-in-law; nieces; and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Joseph; and sister, Joyce Doll.
