

*God hath not promised skies always blue.
Flower-strew'n pathways
all our lives through.*

*God hath not promised
sun without rain,
day without sorrow,
peace without pain.*

*But God hath promised Strength for the day,
Rest for the Labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

Lois Jean Allen was born on May 2, 1931, to Harvey H. and Agnes O. (Berkner) Allen in Milbank, SD. She attended grade school in Milbank and graduated as the Valedictorian with the Class of 1949 from Milbank High School. Lois Jean then attended college at South Dakota State College in Brookings. On August 10, 1958, she married Harold F. Miller at Central United Methodist Church in Milbank. From this union they had one son, Charles Allen Miller, who was born on December 3, 1959.

While in Milbank, Lois Jean worked at Milbank Mutual Insurance Company. In 1958, the couple moved to Minneapolis, MN, and Lois Jean was employed with Iowa National Insurance Company. In 1964, Lois and Harold moved back to Milbank where she continued her career in the insurance industry, working at Midwest Security Corp and for Stockholm Mutual Insurance Company as their secretary/director. She retired after working for Grant County Review in Milbank.

Lois Jean was very faithful and active member of Central United Methodist Church. She served as a church organist for 22 years, was a Sunday school teacher, taught the Immigrant Sunday School cCass, and was a member of the United Methodist Women and the Gospel Singer's Choir. Additionally, she was a member of Esther Chapter #20 of Order of Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary, St. Bernard's Hospital Auxiliary, Grant County Historical Society, and Red Hat Society.

Left to cherish her memory are her grandsons: David Charles (Cathy) Miller, and Aaron Michael Miller; ex-daughter-in-law, Carla Miller; special friend, Daryl Stengel; and many other friends and relatives. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold; son, Charles; and parents: Harvey and Agnes.

How Great Thou Art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation

*And take me home,
what joy shall fill my heart!*

Then I shall bow in humble adoration

And there proclaim:

"My God, how great Thou art!"

*Then sings my soul,
my Savior God, to thee,*

How great Thou art!

How great Thou art!
