

Be kind to your soul.
be kind to your heart,
and to the hearts
of others as well.

For we are all deeply in need of a little empathy and deeply in need of a loving hand.

So if we should exalt anything
in this existence, let it not be fame and fortune, but better yet
love, and love above
everything else.

Beryl Laurretta Cebula (Alm) was born February 11, 1930, to Harold and Florence (Patterson) Alm in Watford City, ND. The family moved to Buchanan, ND, in 1931. She graduated from Buchanan High School in 1948. She married Sanford "Sam" Cebula on June 11, 1949, in Jamestown, ND, and they made their home in Wimbledon, ND. They had four children.

Beryl worked for Hamman's Grocery and did some babysitting until she was employed by Farmers & Merchants Bank later worked at Security State Bank, retiring in 1995. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wimbledon from 1949 until her death. She taught Sunday School, was active in the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, and was a member of the Altar Guild. She was also a member of the LaBrash Altringer Auxiliary.

She enjoyed doing counted cross stitch, quilt making, reading, baking (especially orange rolls and cookies), and having coffee with her friends. She also loved to play games. In the summer of 2010, Beryl moved to Ortonville, MN, to be closer to family. She lived independently in the High Rise for seven years, attended First English Lutheran Church in Ortonville, and was involved with Day of Love. In May of 2017, she moved to Harvest Trail at Fairway View Neighborhoods where she resided until her passing.

She is survived by her four children: Natalie (Robert) Findlay, Tacoma, WA; Becky (Jerry) Parker, Ortonville, MN; Sanford "Sam" (Sheila), Mankato, MN; and Robert "Rob" (Shannon), Stevens Point, WI; seven grandchildren: Steve Parker, Seth (Monica) Parker, Samara (Scott) Eugene, Morgan Cebula, Nathaniel Cebula, Alex Cebula, and Derek Heikens; and six great-grandchildren; Saul Eugene, Calem Eugene, Malia Eugene, Sam Parker, Aida Parker, and Paislee Heikens.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Sam; and two sisters, Ann Thoenke and Kay Bell.
