

The Golden Age of Grace

OH, what a lovely blessing to reach the "Age of Grace"
When God had kept you all along and brought you to this place

You're living life of wisdom, you've gained it through your trials
Helping many hurting souls through standing satan's wiles.

God called you from the womb to fulfill a specific purpose
To help upbuild His kingdom, so eternal bliss could surface.

We're preparing for eternity while traveling on this earth
Some day we'll meet in paradise and see our sufferings worth.

Such a wise and faithful servant, you've delighted yourself in the Lord
And your heavenly head of gray is just a glimpse of your reward.

You've stored up treasures in heaven that'll never rot away
So your living is not in vain for in Christ you trust and obey.

So, continue in the Lord and He will give you rest.
So many snares He's brought you through, many trials and tests.

You don't have to feel discouraged and you don't ever have to fear
For the God that set the stars in the Heaven's, is truly standing near.

He's the one who'll never leave you, His promise is always met
By faith, you must believe it, because He's never failed you yet.

OH, what a lovely blessing to reach the "Age of Grace"
When God had kept you all along and brought you to this place.
