

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around his garden
And found an empty space;
He then looked down upon this earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arm around you
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew you might never
Get well upon this earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you never went alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you Home.

Deloris Theresa Sellner was born on May 19, 1941, in Sleepy Eye, MN, to Walter and Mathilda (Rosenstengel) Sellner. She grew up and attended school in Sleepy Eye. Deloris met Delbert Brede in New Ulm, MN, and they were married on August 9, 1961, in Stewart, MN.

Deloris had many jobs in addition to helping Delbert on the farm near Big Stone City, SD; she was a painter, worked at St. William's Nursing Home, Super 8 Hotel, and most recently as a CNA at the Ortonville Nursing Home. She was a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church in Milbank.

Deloris loved to travel with Delbert. She enjoyed quilting, growing and canning vegetables, flower gardening, and tending a large strawberry patch.

Deloris is survived by her husband, Delbert of Big Stone City, SD; sons: Delbert (Tyan) Brede, Jr. of Ceylon, MN; and Delano (Twyla) Brede of Bagley, IA; daughter, Debbie Jonescheit of Liberty, MO; eight grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; sisters: Dorothy (Stan) Painter, Helen (Roy) Janni, Rose Groebner, Arlene (Frank) Matter, Kathy Platz, and Donna (Ron) Soukup; brother, Walter (Carol) Sellner, Jr.; sisters-in-law: Denise Sellner, and Nina Skalberg; and many nieces and nephews.

Deloris was preceded in death by her parents: Walter and Mathilda; sister, Rita Sellner; and brother, Wilbert Sellner.

In Loving Memory Of
