

*The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil for Thou art with me.
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.*

*Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

ARRANGEMENTS BY

Mundwiler and Larson Funeral Home

Ortonville, Minnesota

Jim attended the University of North Dakota and earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1962. While at college, he was very active in football and track. After graduation, Jim entered the United States Army; he served as a neuro-psychiatric technician for three years.

Jim started his teaching career in Bellingham, MN. Jim taught there for three years and coached just about everything. The family moved to Ortonville where he coached and taught math/PE for 33 years. He cherished all the students that he had in the classroom over the years and loved being involved in the sports that he coached: track, cross country, and basketball.

Jim loved sports of all kinds. He loved watching them, talking about them, and participating in them throughout his life. He loved to golf and traveled to Kingsland, TX, for 28 years to enjoy golfing in the warmer temperatures over the winter months during his retirement.

He enjoyed camping with family over his lifetime, was a master at starting a campfire, loved to play cards and board games, would challenge anyone at cribbage, loved to drink coffee with his friends, and enjoyed doing the daily crossword puzzle. Jim especially enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren, Sam and Courtney.

Jim is survived by his wife, Sharron Johnson; his daughter and son-in-law: Cathy and Joe Scoblic; his son, Mark Johnson; his grandchildren: Sam Scoblic (girlfriend, Gabby Ross) and Courtney Scoblic (boyfriend, Jazz Baird); and his brother, Skip Johnson.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Myrtle and Irwin Johnson; and his two sons: Craig and Christopher Johnson.
