The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
Psalm 23 ~ KJV

Mundwiler Funeral Home - Milbank, South Dakota

Dennis Eugene Kasuske was born on March 15, 1940, at the family farm near Twin Brooks, SD. He was the son of Alvin and Maecille (Beskow) Kasuske. Dennis was baptized on April 14, 1940, and confirmed into the Lutheran faith on May 8, 1955.

Dennis attended school in Milbank and graduated with the Class of 1958. He served in the United States Air Force, 28th Bomb Wing, serving in San Antonio, TX, Amarillo, TX, and at Ellsworth Air Force Base in South Dakota. He was a B-52 mechanic. Following his honorable discharge, Dennis returned to South Dakota and farmed until 1984. He was united in marriage with Joyce Noeldner. Together they were blessed with three children: Kari, Kipp, and Corey. He drove truck for Bracht Transportation and Ken's Transfer. Dennis also owned his rig and hauled fuel to stations in Milbank. Dennis owned and operated Smokey's Bar in Corona for a few years. Most recently, he drove truck for Schneck Farms. Dennis loved to ride motorcycles (his "scooter") – he especially enjoyed riding with the Christian Motorcycle Association.

Dennis is survived by his daughter, Kari (Brian) DeSchepper of Jefferson, SD; daughter-in-law, Nancy Kasuske of Madison, SD; five grandchildren: Katie Grove of Allemon, IA; Tara DeSchepper of Allemon, IA; Justin DeSchepper of Jefferson, SD; Carter Kasuske of Madison, SD; and Kyla Kasuske of Madison, SD; sister, Lynae (Jeff) Grabow of South Shore, SD; nephew, Tim (Lacey) Grabow of South Shore, SD; and niece, Starr (Johnny) Cole of South Shore, SD. Dennis was preceded in death by his parents; two sons: Kipp in 1990, and Corey in 2008; and one brother, Monte in 1958.
