The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness

for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil for Thou art with me.

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and

I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

—Psalm 23

Janeth Silicia Payán-Montes was born on June 5, 1999, in Nuevo Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, Mexico. She was the beloved daughter of Rohany Payán and Silicia Montes. Janeth spent her first three years in Mexico. She moved to Greeley, CO, when she was three years old and resided there until she was a third grader. She then moved to Milbank, SD, where she attended school and graduated from Milbank High School with the Class of 2017. In 2018, she moved to Summit, SD, with her fiancé, Garrett Fonder.

Janeth worked at Montage in Milbank while she attended high school. She later worked as a correctional officer in Sisseton, SD, and at H&R Block in Watertown, SD. While in school, Janeth participated in a number of sports including volleyball and cheerleading.

Janeth was a very independent and strong young woman. She enjoyed driving fast and a loud exhaust, occasionally partaking in a friendly race. She liked picnics, naps, chocolate milk, tattoos, and suntanning. She always liked to look pretty and especially made sure her eyebrows looked good.

Janeth was a caring person and would always put others before herself. She was straight forward with people and had a bit of a mischievous side. She wanted to go to school for translating and wanted to use her skills to help others. She hoped to someday have children of her own and foster and adopt children. She was very excited to marry Garrett Fonder. She appreciated his inquisitive nature and how talkative he is. Despite Janeth's health challenges, she was resilient. She remained strong and never lost hope. She was proud of the health challenges she conquered.

Janeth is survived by her parents: Rohany Payán and Silicia Montes of Milbank, SD; sisters: Selena Payán of Watertown, SD; Julie Payán of Milbank, SD; Carol Payán of Milbank, SD; and Mia Payán of Milbank, SD; brother, Rohanito of Milbank, SD; grandmother, Alicia Jurado of Mexico; grandfather, Uriel Montes of Mexico; Godmother, María Luísa of Greeley, CO; many aunts, uncles, and cousins; and her soon to be family-in-law.
