

*God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore will not we fear,
though the earth be removed,
and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
Selah. There is a river,
the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God,
the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.
God is in the midst of her;
she shall not be moved:
God shall help her, and that right early.*

Alan Mallery was born on August 8, 1949, in Watertown, South Dakota, to Arthur T. and Nettie (Narem) Mallery. Alan graduated from Summit High School in 1967. He attended South Dakota State University and was in the US Army from 1969-1973.

Alan lived most of his life in Wright County, Minnesota. He worked for Temroc Metals in Plymouth, MN, and Living Word Christian Center in Brooklyn Park, MN. Alan loved his Harley Davidson motorcycle and was a member of many motorcycle groups.

Alan is survived by his brother, Bruce Mallery of Summit, SD; and many cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents.

How Great Thou Art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation

*And take me home,
what joy shall fill my heart!*

Then I shall bow in humble adoration

And there proclaim:

"My God, how great Thou art!"

*Then sings my soul,
my Savior God, to thee,*

How great Thou art!

How great Thou art!
