

Home in Heaven

I am at home in Heaven, dear ones:

Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed:
I am now at peace forever.
Safely home at heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illuminated
Every dark and fearful glade.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand:
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh! the joy to see you come.

Geneve Gay Comero was born on April 30, 1927, in Ortonville, MN. She was the daughter of Lester and Ruth (Trapp) Comero. Geneve was baptized at home by Pastor George Zech on June 30, 1927. She attended Big Stone School.

As a young lady, Geneve worked for about ten years at Gowan Café in Ortonville. She was later employed at Big Stone Cheese Factory and Big Stone Canning Company. In 1963, Geneve became the church janitor for Tabor United Methodist Church. She retired in 1975. She was a faithful and life-long member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, which later became Tabor United Methodist Church. She enjoyed being a part of the UMW. She sang with the church choir and the community chorus and was blessed with a beautiful singing voice. She was a long-time member of the Big Stone City Round Table Club.

Geneve was very proud to have been an 86-year member of the Big Stone American Legion Auxiliary. She enjoyed being active and attending the Legion Auxiliary's functions. Her hobbies included cooking, baking, playing cards, and visiting with friends.

Geneve Comero is survived by cousins: Judy Lynch, Susan Schroeder, and Mary Ann Ulrich; special friends: Frances Conraad, Lamoine Herrmann, DeWane and Cathy Stoddard, Bill and Deb Wiik; her church family; and the caregivers at Fairway View Neighborhoods.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Lester and Ruth; aunts: Florence Trapp and Rose Nelson; uncle, Paul Trapp Jr.; as well as other relatives; and Harry and Grace Russman, close family friends.

In Loving Memory
