

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took his hand when I heard His call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and to thee
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Duane Theodore Wiseman was born on July 29, 1937, in Roberts County, SD, on the Giessinger family farm near Corona. He was the son of Theo and Celia (Giessinger) Wiseman. Duane attended rural school in Roberts County and then attended school in Revillo through eighth grade. He continued to help his father on the family farm. Duane married Ruth Schmierbach in 1961 and to this union, six children were born: Shelley, Glenda, Renae, Alan, Brent, and Craig.

Duane worked for the Grant County Highway Department. He plowed snow through the terrible winter of 1969. He later worked at Joe Scheef Construction, Cold Springs Granite, and finally, at Wiseman Construction for 27 years where he worked with his dad and his brother, Don.

Duane enjoyed working on his own farm near Twin Brooks. He raised sheep, horses, cattle, and chickens until 1986 when he moved into Milbank. He loved horses and was a member of the Revillo Saddle Club. He enjoyed watching rodeos, hunting, and fishing. He was a member of Tabor United Methodist Church in Big Stone City, SD, the Marvin Senior Citizens, and the Last of the Fast Guns Club. Duane enjoyed spending time and dancing with his girlfriend, Lola. He and Lola also enjoyed traveling together. He especially liked visiting Alaska, Nashville, TN, and Branson, MO. He loved country music and would never miss attending the Peever Jamboree.

Duane is survived by his longtime girlfriend, Lola Voeltz of Milbank, SD; children: Shelley (Paul) Bareford of Rapid City, SD; Glenda (Mark) Conrad of Wilmot, SD; Renae (Brent) Ennis of Watertown, SD; Alan Wiseman of Rapid City, SD; Brent Wiseman of Twin Brooks, SD; and Craig (Ranale) Wiseman of Rapid City, SD; brother, Don Wiseman of Milbank, SD; sister Margaret (Wayne) Jensen of Brooklyn Park, MN; ten grandchildren; many great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.
